MOTHERS' DAY...

This Sunday is Mothers' Day. What a blessing our mothers are to us! They give us life, they nurture us, they protect us, they teach us, they encourage and correct us, they give us faith and, ultimately, they let us go! Nothing can supplant a mother's love.

Recently, perhaps because Mothers' Day was approaching, I seemed to be more attentive to exchanges between mothers and their children. It is amazing what is communicated by a look or a touch. The expression of a mom as she watched her child make their First Holy Communion. The tender hug a mom offers to a rambunctious child in the narthex. In so many ways, our mothers influence us to become better people.

Today is the day that we should make an extra effort to thank and acknowledge all our moms. In addition, we acknowledge the good examples of motherhood we see demonstrated in the many women of our lives: grandmothers, god-mothers, aunts and sisters. We ask God to bless all women on this Mothers' Day; and may we, their children and husbands, join in blessing them! Happy Mothers' Day.

ORDINATIONS...

Next Saturday, May 20th, the Archdiocese of Chicago will celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Orders for new priests in our Archdiocese. This year, there will be six new priests for the Archdiocese of Chicago (the same number that were in my class!) Let us remember these six men as they are ordained to serve our local Church:

*Deacon Timothy Anastos - Deacon Radley Alcantara
Deacon Moises Navarro - Deacon Trent Rauck
Deacon Przemyslaw Tomczyk - Deacon Miguel Venegas*

While we are most grateful for their responding to God's call to serve the Church, the fact is that we need many more priests than we are currently ordaining. And so, while we offer a prayer for these men to be ordained, we also need to pray that more young men respond to the calling of the Lord to serve as priests.

It will be my privilege to present the new priests their Archdiocesan Stoles on Friday when they gather for their rehearsal for Saturday's Ordination Mass. In addition, Fr. Bob and I both plan on attending the Ordination Mass on Saturday, therefore we will not be able to have funerals on Saturday morning.

ANNIVERSARIES...

It is the time of year to celebrate, not only for new ordinations, but also the anniversaries of most ordained priests. This year, the priests who regularly serve our parish are celebrating the following anniversaries:

Fr. Bob Regan, 2nd - May 16, 2015

Fr. Frank Kurucz, 19th - May 23, 1998

Fr. Joe Mulcrone, 46th - May 12, 1971

Fr. Lou Tylka, 21st - May 18, 1996

It is also the time for anniversaries for those who are ordained as permanent deacons, and so congrats to:

Deacon Ed Pluchar, 13th - May 16, 2004

Thank you to my brother priests and Deacon Ed for sharing their ministry with us at St. Julie! Ad Multos Annos!

BEGINNING WORK...

This past week, contracts were signed to start some major work to be undertaken this summer at St. Julie. In the near future, we will replace the heating and air conditioning units in the church. These units are near the end of their life expectancy. They were part of the case statement for the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign, they are also marked for greater efficiencies which prompts us to replace them now.

In addition, we have two other "major projects" we are planning to address this summer: replacing the roof on the Devine Center and replace the light fixtures throughout the campus as part of our energy project. There will be more to come on these as we move closer to getting them underway. Suffice it to say, I am very grateful to those who have kept up their pledge payments to the To Teach Who Christ Is campaign that helps us facilitate this work.

ARRIVED...

The new Holy Family Statue is here! I am not sure if, as you read this, they will have "settled" in the church since the 'stand' for the statue could not be built until the sculpture arrived. The statue will be in the church by next weekend, and we will have a blessing of the Holy Family Statue at each Mass, and we will include the May Crowning at the 10:30am Mass.

Peace and Prayers,

Fr. Lou

Holy Father's Monthly Universal Prayer Intention: Christians in Africa

That Christians in Africa, in imitation of the merciful Jesus, may give prophetic witness to reconciliation, justice, and peace.

St Julie Prayer Intentions

May 11-17: For all mothers, and those who play the role of mother in someone's life, that they experience appreciation, and that they know a deep sense of fulfillment in all they do for their loved ones.

May 18-24: For the newly ordained priests and deacons of the Archdiocese of Chicago, that they be led by the Holy Spirit to lead and serve the people of God; and that they be protected by the Blessed Mother from all spiritual harm.

To St Julie Billiard Parishioners,

We want to sincerely thank you for your donation of $3,200.00 from your Ash Wednesday Collection. Your investment in Amate House will help Amate House Volunteers to provide services to the neediest populations in the city and Archdiocese of Chicago.

Our work is possible because of supporters like you. Thank you so much. Your church community's generosity is greatly appreciated.

Proclaiming the Word of God: Training for New & Veteran Lectors

Tuesdays, May 16 & 23 7:00-9:00pm
St. Daniel the Prophet, Chicago
773/586-1223

This two part workshop focuses on the theology of The Word, the history of the Mass, liturgical language, proclamation skills and the gifts required for liturgical ministry.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reading I: Acts 6: 1-7

From the very beginning Christ's church took special care of the poor, especially widows who no longer had a husband to be their protector. It wasn't something they just decided to do. They learned it by years of watching how Jesus always gave preferential treatment to the poor among them, with special attention to women and children.

Reading II: 1 Peter 2: 4-9

The second reading places Jesus at the very foundation of who we are to be as people of God. We are the new living temple and Jesus our cornerstone who claims us his own.

Gospel: John 14: 1-12

As if to reinforce the first two readings, Jesus reminds us that HE is the way and that we should always follow him by living our lives in imitation of his life. If we are ever in doubt of what to do, Jesus' life is our template.

Challenge for the Week:

At dinner this evening, share with one another what it means to you personally to live as Jesus did, caring for those in need.

Happy Mother's Day!

I have been doing some major house-cleaning. Now, my husband and I have only been in this home since 2001. Before that, we had to clean out 35 years worth of 'stuff' from our previous home! For most of it we were glad to finally pitch it. However, for some of it, it was gut-wrenching. It was so difficult to let go of the cribs, walkers, bouncy chairs, wind-up swings, and all the darling little outfits so meticulously packed away that had turned yellow and dingy any way. But, once we did it and moved to our present home, we vowed that we would never do that again. We would keep up with the junk and not be hoarders. But...always the but...here I am going through closets and boxes that have been crammed into every available space in our home. However, I have a really good reason. No, I'm not moving out....my mom is moving in. She's been leery of it but I am strangely excited. Now I get a chance to do for her what she did for me....take care of her.

One of my favorite pictures of my mom is one I found when I was doing all that cleaning when we moved from our first home. It was taken at a dinner and in it were my two cousins, their mom, my sister and I, my mom and her sister!! At the time it took my breath away!

When I was child this particular group of women got together often, but for many, many years now it has not been so easy. My mom looked particularly happy in the picture. Her sister is her last sibling living and my aunt her last sister-in-law. She was fairly beaming. I still remember how I felt as I gazed at all those smiling faces. If it wasn't for my mom, I wouldn't have been sitting there reliving my own life filled with memories of my own children and grandchildren. Because of that tiny, little woman (only 5'2") dedicating her life to raising my sister, brother and me and giving us a wonderful, love-filled home, I am able to pass on that legacy to my own family. I was especially overwhelmed with love and gratitude for her in that moment. And I am so grateful to God that she is my mother. I am very much like her and she is very much like many of the women God has given us as our own ancestors in faith.

There are many examples in Scripture, though we rarely hear their stories proclaimed on Sundays. There was Deborah, an Old Testament judge, who led an army to protect her people. Ruth, a direct ancestor of Jesus, was a woman of fierce loyalty to her family, leaving all she knew to follow them into the unknown. The mother of the Maccabee brothers was a source of encouragement for her sons' bravery when they were faced with dire adversity and Esther and Judith were queens who put their lives on the line to save their people.

For many of us, we may be more familiar with the New Testament women: besides Mary, Jesus' mother, and Mary Magdalene, we have Phoebe, a deaconess of the early Church who spent her life helping those in need, and Lois and Eunice, a mother and daughter who passed on their faith in Christ to their children. There was also Chloe, a leader who was entrusted by Paul with one of his important letters to deliver to a community anxious for his words. All resilient women gifted by God with strengths and virtues that have been passed down through the ages to all of us as models to emulate. I know God has graced my mother with many of those virtues, as I am sure God has graced your mother as well. May we always remember them and may we always be blessed by their lives.

Happy Mother's Day to all!
