NOSES COUNTED…

Over the course of the month of October, as is done each year, the numbers of Mass attendees were counted in the parishes of the Archdiocese of Chicago. The count is used by the parish and the Archdiocese to assess a parish's vitality and is a factor in long-term planning. Especially in the era of Renew My Church, these numbers will help to determine a direction in a given area about the number of parishes needed to continue as vibrant faith communities. Here at St. Julie Billiart, there is a slight decrease in attendance; still 8,642 people gathered over the month to worship God. In comparison to last year, the decrease is minimal. On the one hand, I think we have better 'counts' than in previous years. Last year we began using clickers that count as folks came in the doors of the church - a better system than walking up and down the aisles counting noses. Our average attendance is 2,161 people per weekend. Per mass attendance averages are:

4:30pm…….434 people
7:30am…….192 people
9:00am…….361 people
10:30am…...446 people
12:00pm…...381 people
6:00pm…….347 people

I would classify our average participation as being stable. Part of the decline in numbers is the fact that we have buried over 100 souls from out parish in the past year. Anecdotally, I know that a good number of those folks were regular Mass goers.

So, I thank you for your regular participation at Mass. Central to who we are as Catholics is our commitment to attend and participate in Sunday Mass. Your presence in our community enriches our worship. It is a challenge for each of us to invite our family, friends and neighbors to share in the rich experience of Sunday Mass along with us. All are welcome!

PRAYING FOR OUR BELOVED DEAD…

Throughout this month of November, the Church traditionally prays in particular for the faithful departed. The truth is that we pray for them throughout the year. In particular, we spend time thanking God for their lives - especially their lives of faith - that we have been blessed to share with them. The remembrance board in the narthex is a great way to honor our faithful departed. I encourage folks to stop by and take a moment to read the names, look at the pictures and offer a prayer for them.

One of the things that I am asked, far to frequently, is "Father, can I be buried from St. Julie, even if I'm no longer a parishioner?" To me this is a shocking question! Why wouldn't we bury someone, parishioner or not? Yet, this is an unsettling question in some folk's minds. I always assure them that "YES" you can be buried from St. Julie Billiart. All Christians are entitled to Christian burial from the Church - not just Catholic Christians. Our ritual book has services included to burying outside of Mass with Christian Burial. Our task in fulfilling a corporal work of mercy is not only bury the dead, but to remember them in prayer as well. Let us pray for all who have gone home to God…

Eternal rest grant unto them
O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Peace & Prayers,

Fr. Lou

BONANZA BIT

Something to consider…
When we previously held multiple raffles, I used to purchase $100 in tickets for each raffle. If it was 3 raffles a year, I bought at least $300 in tickets. Even though we are having only one major raffle this year - could I possibly buy more than 1 ticket?

CARDINAL JOSEPH BERNARDIN Catholic School

Golden Rule
do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

People in the hurricane zones have lost everything … They've lost their homes and their possessions - they've even lost their schools! The 8th Grade Class of Cardinal Bernardin School has reflected and prayed and we've decided that we had to do something to reach out and help some of these people and we've created a service project to do that.

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI CATHOLIC SCHOOL

While we can't help everyone – we found someone who needs us! St. Francis of Assisi School in Houston, Texas lost their school building and with it all of their books, technology and supplies! We adopted St. Francis of Assisi School as our sister school and we are raising money to help them put their school back together.

The students designed a pretty cool shirt and will be selling these shirts after all Masses on November 11th and November 12th.

For just $10 you can buy a shirt and help change a life. A small donation for a HUGE act of kindness, charity and hope!

ALL profits from our T-Shirts sales will go to our brothers and sisters at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic School in Houston!

Help Us Live the Golden Rule!

An Evening with
The Gospel of Mark
Monday
November 13, 2017
7:00-8:30pm
In the Church

This year, on December 3, 2017, we move into Lectionary Cycle B. It is also the First Sunday of Advent and for Catholics, the beginning of a new Liturgical Year for us.

After Vatican II, there were a great many changes in the Liturgical life of the Church. One of the biggest was that we began to hear more Scripture at Mass than we had ever heard before. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the first of 16 documents to be written after the Council, made some very key statements about the significance of scripture to the life of the Church and its relation to liturgy. First, it said 'scripture was of the greatest importance in...the liturgy' and then it said we were to have more readings in our Sunday and weekday liturgies.

To that end the Lectionary, the book containing the readings, was expanded into three separate cycles for Sundays and two separate cycles for the Weekday readings. For the Sunday cycles, Cycle A has the majority of gospels taken from the Gospel of Matthew; Cycle B from the Gospel of Mark; and Cycle C from the Gospel of Luke. Readings from the Gospel of John are smattered throughout all three cycles.

With the beginning of Advent this year, the majority of our Gospels will come from the Gospel of Mark, Cycle B. Mark's Gospel has some unique aspects. One, is that it is considered to be the first gospel written, roughly around 60-70 A.D. Second, Mark's gospel was one of the sources that both Matthew and Luke used when writing their own gospels. And third, Mark is the shortest of all the gospels. Because of that, there is just not enough of Mark to fill all the Sundays in the year so when the Lectionary was set in place, a more generous portion of scripture from the Gospel of John was included in Cycle B to round out the Sunday readings.

To help prepare us for this upcoming year, St. Julie is offering an evening of reflection on the Gospel of Mark. It will be presented by Todd Williamson, the Director of the Office of Divine Worship here in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

The evening promises to give us a deeper understanding of the Liturgy of the Word and help open up Mark's Gospel in terms of time and context. Even though many of us are familiar with the readings we hear each week, every year we are in a new place in our lives because life never stops moving. Because of that, a very familiar reading can often be heard with new ears and new insights. The depths of God's Word is far beyond anything we can imagine, and it constantly reveals to us, year after year, the depth of God's Love for us.

The Mosque and the Imam:

The mosque is the place of worship to God and a place of learning for Muslims. You may have seen photos of beautiful mosques from around the world or driven past elegant mosques or simple community centers in your own neighborhoods.

November 5: Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today, we hear the good news that when we keep our focus on God and serve one another, God exalts us!

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

Within the mosque, the large unadorned room without chairs but with a carpet or covering is the place for noon Friday obligatory congregational worship for Muslims. On entering it, worshipers and guests remove their shoes and women cover their heads. The men and boys stand shoulder to shoulder facing Mecca (east in the United States). The women and girls may be behind the men or more often in the balcony. There is a pulpitlike structure from which the imam gives additional teaching. During prayer, which lasts approximately ten minutes, the imam or prayer leader stands alone a few feet in front of the worshipers, where he leads the prescribed prayers. It is not, however, required that only the imam leads the prayers. If he is not present, another man may be designated as prayer leader. An imam or prayer leader in Islam is not necessarily ordained; rather any Muslim who is knowledgeable and of good moral standing can be an imam. The Catholic Church promotes spiritual ecumenism by inviting us to pray for Muslims. We may also visit their mosques and observe their methods of prayer when appropriate. Perhaps you and a Muslim neighbor may want to visit each other's mosque and church.
