WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE SICK...

Monday, February 11, is the World Day of Prayer for the Sick. This is the 27th observance of this day of prayer begun by Saint Pope John Paul II as a call for all of us to bear in mind the plight of those who are ill. Our health is such a precious gift; and whether we are old or young, when we are not well our lives seem fraught with great difficulties. The simple challenge of overcoming a cold or flu can frustrate us, and these are minor health issues compared to those who battle cancer, serious diseases or the effects of accidents, not to mention those who long suffer from chronic disease, mental disabilities or even spiritual deserts.

We know the power of prayer can heal. We know that Jesus is the true remedy of our pains and sufferings. It is good for us to unite ourselves to those who are sick and ask for God's grace to see us through. Pope Francis, in his message for this World Day of the Sick, reminds us: "the Church - as a Mother to all her children, especially the infirm - reminds us that generous gestures like that of the Good Samaritan are the most credible means of evangelization. Caring for the sick requires professionalism, tenderness, straightforward and simple gestures freely given, like a caress that makes others feel loved."

May all who are sick - in body, mind or soul - know the healing touch of Jesus, made real through the compassionate care of Christians.

VALENTINE'S DAY...

This week brings us the celebration of Valentine's Day. The celebration of Valentine's Day has exploded into a commercial gold mine as spouses look for the best gifts to give each other: from chocolate to flowers to jewelry, and young people exchange 'cutesy' cards and candies. Restaurants seek to cash in on the prospect of romantic dinners - even at White Castle! While these are all good opportunities to express one's feelings for those whom they love, perhaps the best observance of Valentine's Day comes not in 'buying' some trinket as an expression of love, but rather truly sharing a heart of love.

Love is so much more than a warm and fuzzy feeling. Love comes from God, because God is love. And when we speak of love from the way God reveals love, we see how much more we are called beyond the emotional connections created. Think back to the words we heard from St. Paul last weekend: "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrong-doing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails." And so, in celebrating this holiday, perhaps one good possibility is to be able to look into the eyes of your beloved, to express truly from your heart, a word of love in which you can concretely demonstrate how you truly love them. Don't let Hallmark do your talking for you. What words do you need to say to your beloved that will allow you both to be filled with an expression of God's love as you share your 'true' love with each other. Happy Valentine's Day!

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL...

Each year, just before we enter the season of Lent, the Archdiocese of Chicago conducts the Annual Catholic Appeal. By now, many folks have received a direct appeal through the mail because of your past generosity. Our support of the Annual Catholic Appeal provides the means for many good works to continue throughout the Archdiocese. The monies raised from the ACA are used to fund ministries that vary from youth and young adult ministry - such as Holy Fire and the St. John Paul II Center at the University of Illinois at Chicago, to Kolbe House Jail Ministry, to Respect Life ministries as well as ongoing formation for Priests and staffs. In addition, some of the resources of the ACA help out Catholic Relief Services which go far beyond the Archdiocese by providing help to those impacted by natural disasters around the world. As we 'gear up' for the Annual Catholic Appeal, I ask you to consider prayerfully the level of support you might make to the ACA. Your gift makes a difference!

COME, FOLLOW ME... and share the Word

2019 Annual Catholic Appeal

annualcatholicappeal.com

During the last few weeks, many parish families will receive or may have already received a letter from Cardinal Cupich requesting your participation in pledging to the 2019 Annual Catholic Appeal. We ask that you respond as generously as possible.

The Appeal supports both Parish and Archdiocesan ministries, and funds services that are of great help here in our Parish. Appeal funds support some of our parish ministries and other support provided by the Archdiocese.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "Come, Follow Me ...and share the Word." We have all received God's love. By financially supporting the ministries and services funded by the Annual Catholic Appeal, we help to extend God's love to many, many others.

As you review the mailing from Cardinal Cupich, take note of those services that directly support the work of our parish and please give generously. When our parish reaches its goal of $65,960.58 in paid pledges, all additional funds contributed will be returned to us for use in our own Parish.

There have been times in our marriage when we felt ourselves drifting apart. Not because of any one catastrophic event, but just because we weren't working on our relationship. We were just getting by. But in a culture antithetical to marriage, just getting by is not enough. All Catholic couples need to work to cultivate a dynamic, vibrant relationship, strong enough to bear the demands of family life, and weather everything the world will throw at it.

The reality is, we are never done working on our marriage. St. John Paul teaches us, "Love is never something ready made, something merely given to man and woman, it is...a task which they are set. Love should be seen as something which never 'is' but is always only 'becoming'..." This is true whether you have been married for 5 years or 50 years. We can never get to the point with our spouse when we say, "OK, now we finally have learned to love perfectly!" We never get there!

Take some time on to celebrate World Marriage Day by doing a "Relationship Check" with your spouse. Get away from the kids, from work, from the house and ask, "How are we doing?". Imagine your relationship as a separate entity (a tree is a good image). Step back from it and assess its health together. This isn't a time to point out faults or establish blame, instead it's a time to work together towards a noble goal.

You are the primary witness to the sanctity of the sacrament of matrimony. Your marriage is of vital importance not just to your family, but also to the whole Church! Don't allow yourselves to drift apart, but be intentional about saving an exceptional marriage. Get more advice, ideas, and encouragement at our website: www.messyfamilyproject.org. We can change the world, one family at a time.

Here are some discussion topics and prompts to help you as a couple more clearly see the state of your relationship and identify areas you need to work on. They are just to get you started! As you prayerfully assess your unique friendship, feel free to add your own topics.

Before you begin your discussion, start by honoring each other, then go on to other questions.

I love you because....

I feel loved when you....

Thank you for....

- ☐ Do we make each other a top priority?
  - Do you feel I make enough time for you?
  - When do we have uninterrupted time to talk?
  - Are there activities we should make more room for?
- ☐ Do we experience generous physical love?
  - How do you feel most loved by me?
  - What are your expectations?
  - What would an ideal romantic evening be for you?
- ☐ Do we provide each other emotional support?
  - Do you feel safe with me?
  - Can talk you with me about anything?
  - Do I help you with challenges in your life?
  - How can I support you?
- ☐ Do we feel respected and valued when we discuss issues such as finances?
  - When we talk, do you feel listened to?
  - Do you think I understand your values?
  - How can we work together on this?
- ☐ Have we created a "vessel of grace" in our marriage?
  - In what areas of our life can we be more in union with the Church?
  - How can we pray better together?
  - How can I support you in your relationship with Our Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit?

Here I am; send me!*5th Sunday in Ordinary
Time*Reading I: Isaiah 6: 1-2a, 3-8

Here I am! Send me.

- In the first reading, Isaiah gives an account of his prophetic call.
- Isaiah has a vision in which one of the seraphim touches his lips with a hot coal from the incense burner.
- This is a sign that his lips are cleansed to preach God's word.

Reading II: I Corinthians 15: 1-11

The grace of God is with us always.

- The reading from I Corinthians precedes the Gospel of Mark and is the oldest statement of resurrection faith recorded.
- Paul presents the Gospel's general outline in the formal pattern of rabbinical tradition.
- For Paul, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the culmination of things written long ago.

Gospel: Luke: 5: 1-11The apostles were called and so are we.

- Today's Gospel story presents Luke's account of the call of the first disciples.
- In contrast to the story told by Matthew and Mark, here the disciples had a more resounding reason to respond to the call from Jesus.
- Simon Peter's response to the call reminds us of the response of Isaiah: "Leave me Lord. I am a sinful man."

Letting Go of Anger....

BOOM! The front door slammed shut and my grandson, Kyle, stormed into the living room and threw himself onto the couch. "I hate Zack and Dillon!" His little body shook with anger and he folded up his arms in front him and rocked back and forth. My own memories of being excluded from the group came flooding back and I had the desire to run to him, comfort him and agree that, indeed, Zack and Dillon were bad boys and not deserving of his attention anymore. But, that would be a childish response. My job was to help Kyle deal with his anger and try and surface what was really going on.

"Now, Kyle, why would you say such a thing?" He looked at me, his eyes welling up with tears, "They won't play with me!" Now, I happen to know that these guys are good friends. A day doesn't go by that I don't answer the front door and find either Zack or Dillon shyly asking if Kyle can come out and play. So, I prod a little bit more. "I see. Well, it's a lucky thing that you 'hate' them now, so you won't ever have to play with them again!"

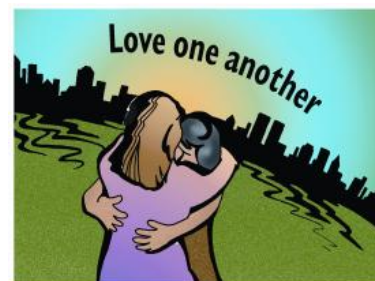

Ah, now I was getting his attention. He unfolded his arms and intently looked at me. "But I didn't really mean it. They just made me feel bad." "They hurt your feelings?" "Yes." He was up off the couch now, edging closer to me. "And that makes your heart hurt inside, doesn't it?" "Yes!" he hollered and fell into my arms. Some hugging and kissing were called for now, so the talking stopped for a moment. And when he did look at me, his face brightened a little. "I don't really hate them," he whispered. "I just want them to like me and play with me!" "Why don't you go back out and find them." No sooner had I said that when the doorbell rang and two sets of eyes peered through the screen door. "Can Kyle come out and play?" WHOOSH. He was gone faster than a hound after a rabbit!

I was filled with all kinds of thoughts. I was glad that Kyle and Zack and Dillon were playing together again, but I was saddened that such hard words of anger passed so easily from a five year old. Ironically, because he is only five, the sudden blast of 'hate' would dissipate quickly. But that won't always be the case as he gets older. Somehow the ease with which we forgive slowly disappears and we learn how to hold onto anger and grudges. That makes it all the harder to open ourselves back up to the person who offended us. And our hard words will make it almost impossible to 'go back out and play.'

My prayer for myself is that God helps me let loose of the anger and the hurts that multiply inside of me and that understanding and forgiveness begins to grow in their place instead. Hopefully, someday I will become a five year old in my heart again and be able to WHOOSH out into the world freed of my anger as quickly as Kyle was.

Be Salt Wise This Winter

Salt can infiltrate and permanently pollute groundwater and streams. Use the minimal amount.

1. Shovel - Clear walkways and other areas before the snow turns to ice.
2. Scatter - If you use salt, scatter it so that there is space between the grains. A 12-ounce coffee mug of salt is enough to treat an entire 20-foot driveway.
3. Switch - When pavement temperatures drop below 15 degrees, salt won't work. Switch to sand for traction or a different ice melter that works at lower temperatures (i.e., Calcium chloride).
4. Store Correctly - Store ice melting products in airtight containers to maintain maximum effectiveness. For information, visit: www.wisaltwise.com.

4th Grade Mass & Port Lunches

The 4th Grade Level Mass is today, February 10th, at 11:00am. Students and their families are invited to attend this Mass. The 4th graders will participate in the Entrance Processional and should line up in the Narthex by 10:50am. Your child will then join you and your family in your pew.

Immediately following Mass, your family is invited to help prepare 300 lunches for The Port Ministries in the Parish Hall. All are welcome to participate in this endeavor. You are asked to bring fresh fruit, breakfast / granola bars or pre-packaged lunchmeat.

We look forward to welcoming all our Fourth Grade families, including our summer intensive students, on February 10th for this Grade Level Mass and making lunches for The Port.

8th Grade Reconciliation Before Confirmation

As the Eighth Grade Confirmation Candidates prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation they will first participate in the sacrament of Reconciliation with their classmates on Wednesday, February 20th during their regularly scheduled class.

Seventh Grade Jesus Projects

This year, the Seventh Grade students in our Religious Education program have focused on the person of Jesus in the Gospels. Their primary project is to use some art form to depict a Jesus story of their choice. The projects will be presented in their individual classrooms on February 21st and a classroom winner is elected by peer vote. The "Jesus Projects" will be on display for viewing by the Seventh Grade parents and the parish community after the Masses in the Parish Hall on Saturday and Sunday, March 16th and 17th.

Catechetical Resource Day

On Sunday, January 27th, St. Julie hosted over 130 catechists representing parishes from the southwest suburban area. They gathered for prayer, a presentation on Living the Mass by Rev. Dominic Grassi, a well-known priest and author in the Archdiocese of Chicago, and there were Break-out sessions directed by the Cluster Directors of Religious Ed. according to Grade-levels. It was a formational and truly productive day for all.

It takes a Village

It takes a village to maintain our campus. I have often shared the efforts of all the custodians and even staff in order to keep and maintain the campus at its best. The same holds true for the vibrancy of our faith family. In the village, like raising children, it takes a lot of time and many talents.

I am looking to update a database of "go-to" people who are willing to give some time for their faith family or to share their many talents. Maybe you are willing to sell Bonanza raffle tickets in the Narthex or can assist with small projects such as assembling binders or cut outs for the All Souls Remembrance Board. There are many times that the Religious Education Office is looking for assistance with these types of tasks. I do not know you are willing to help unless you tell me.

We can use additional help with Art and Environment. Maybe you have an eye for decorating. We appreciate those who can sew or are good with plants. We do this all for the beauty of our church and the glory of God! There are a small group of women who wash the purificators and hand towels used at each Mass. Might you be willing to get into that rotation?

Our liturgies are in need of additional funeral servers, baptismal facilitators, marriage prep couples, wedding facilitators and altar servers. Can you spare some time by comforting a grieving family or celebrating a baptism or marriage? There is always a need for Mass Captains to help check in ministers before Mass. We can use additional Ushers and Greeters at all the Masses.

Maybe you would prefer to pray the Rosary with the residents at American House or Heartis Village. You need not commit to weekly prayer, just when you are able.

There are also social events that are always in need of additional help whether it be assisting with BINGO or Donut Sunday, bar tendering at Trivia Night, selling Young at Heart lunch tickets or maybe spearheading a new event. You are always welcome to be creative plus new ideas are always considered and appreciated.

Please consider being an active member of your faith family. I am looking for occasional volunteers. There is no commitment. You may complete the form below and drop it in the offertory or in the basket located in the Narthex.

If you have any questions, please contact Mike at by calling 708.429.6767 x212 or send me an email at mike@stjulie.org.
